

Unid Russian military station on 4633 kHz, 23 June 1994, 2038 UTC. This tape was on the air for several hours.

“1234567890 Dlya Vas nichego ne imyeyu”

[1234567890 I have nothing for you]

Unid Russian military station on 4018 kHz, 22 September 1994, 1743 UTC. Hard to follow.

“1234567890 (three times) Ya Vulkan-?4, pyeryedayu nastrojku.”

“1234567890 (three times) Ya Lotos-210, zhdu podtvyerzhdeniya nastrojki. “

[1234567890 (three times) I'm Vulkan-?4, transmitting this for tuning adjustments]

[1234567890 (three times) I'm Lotos-210, waiting for confirmation of the tuning adjustments]

Unid Russian military station on 6700 kHz, 28 September 1994, 2230 UTC. Repeated for ca 10 minutes. Difficult to follow:

“Ya ??????-65, Dlya vas nichego nye imeyu. 12345678...” (repeating)

[I'm ??????-65. I have nothing for you]
